Sussex Police supports national firearms amnesty launching in February

Sussex Police is joining other forces across the country in a four-week Firearms Amnesty for five types of BRUNI-manufactured side / top-venting blank firers (TVBFs) which are now illegal to possess following testing by the National Crime Agency and policing.

The amnesty will take place between February 2 and 27, 2026, after which anyone in possession of one of the specified TVBFs could be subject to prosecution and up to 10 years' imprisonment.

During the amnesty period, those handing in a BRUNI TVBFs will not face prosecution for the illegal possession and will not have to give their details. However, the history of any live firearms handed in will be checked for evidence of its use in crime.

People can hand these blank firers in over the counter at designated police stations between these dates, while anyone unable to travel to one of these locations can call the police on 101 to request it be picked up from their home.

Anyone wishing to take part in the amnesty has been urged to use common sense when transporting their TVBF to one of the chosen stations – by placing them in a labelled bag or box and making their way straight there.

Top/Side Venting Blank Firers can be handed in at the following police stations in West Sussex:

- Chichester Police Station, Kingsham Road, Chichester, PO19 8AD (open Monday-Saturday 9am- 5pm)
- Crawley Police Station, Northgate Avenue, Crawley, RH10 8BF (open Monday-Saturday 9am- 5pm)
- Worthing Police Station, Chatsworth Road, Worthing, BN11 1LY (open Monday-Saturday 9am- 5pm)

New Fatal Five Unit launched to save lives on Sussex roads

On average, 45 people are killed and almost 1,000 are seriously injured on our roads every year.

In a bid to reduce this figure and save lives, Sussex Police has launched the new Fatal Five Unit, set up specifically to tackle the five most common causes of fatal and serious injury collisions:

- Drink and drug-driving
- Speeding
- Failing to wear a seatbelt
- Distracted driving
- Careless driving

Are you a motorcyclist in Sussex?

Had a crash where you were injured? If so, read on..

Sussex Police are conducting a pilot project for motorcyclists, to take part in free of charge, to reduce motorcycle crashes in the future.

What does it involve:

- You'll be required to complete a survey before and after the course
- Attend DVSA Burgess Hill for a 4-hour practical riding session to address issues involving the crash
- Complete online learning modules

Are you eligible:

- Valid UK driving licence (suitable for your motorcycle)
- A legal, roadworthy motorcycle
- Appropriate protective clothing – including helmet and gloves
- Must have been involved in a motorcycle collision in the last two years

Would you like to help reduce motorcycle crashes in the future?

To sign up, click the link below where you'll be directed to complete a short survey and register your interest.

This research project is funded by the Road Safety Trust.

PC Steve Bucksey from the Sussex Police Road Safety Team, and leading the programme, said: "Motorcycling offers a sense of freedom and excitement, but we recognise that collisions can happen—and when they do, the difference between a minor injury and a life-changing or fatal outcome can be incredibly small.

"We're inviting motorcyclists in Sussex who have been involved in a collision to join our pilot programme. This course has been developed around the main causes of motorcycle collisions, with practical training designed to help prevent them from happening again. By taking part, you'll gain skills to keep yourself safer on the road, while helping us create a programme that could benefit riders across the country in the future."

UPDATES

Officers attended Lyminster Primary School last week for a School Careers Day

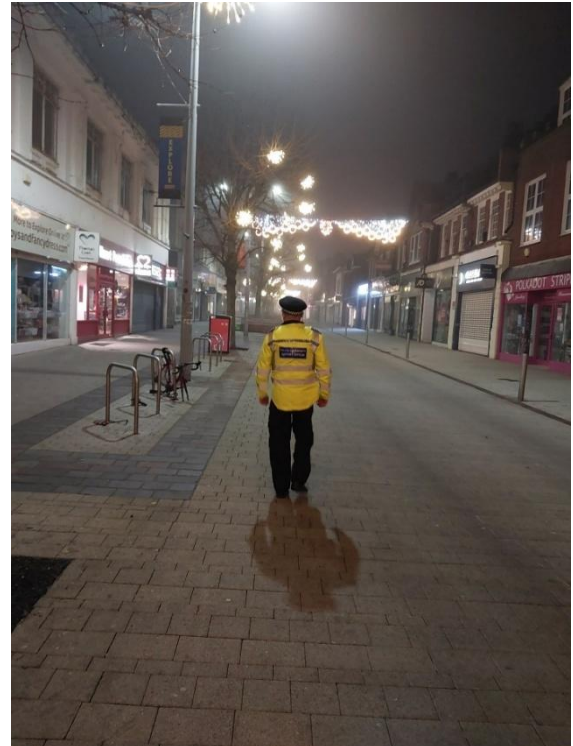

We answered all of the children's questions, and they had lots of fun trying on the hats and getting into the police car with the sirens on.

Patrols continue

Officers from your local Neighbourhood Policing Team have been out and about across Arun on patrols.

We are committed to keeping a hi-visibility presence and reassurance in the district. If you see us whilst you're out and about, please do stop and say hello!

REPORTING A CRIME

For non-emergency incidents or crime prevention advice, click www.sussex.police.uk,
(If you report a crime online, we will assess it in the same way as a 101 call).

Call 101 when you do not require an urgent response. In an emergency when life is threatened or there is immediate danger always call 999.

Connect with us face-to-face at a police station or contact the local policing team at www.sussex.police.uk/area/your-area.

If you are deaf, hard of hearing or speech impaired, you can contact us using TypeTalk on 18000 or by sending a text to 65999.

Crimestoppers

Crimestoppers is speaking up about neighbourhood crimes. Robbery, theft, and burglary harm communities and have a long-lasting impact on their victims. People not only suffer from the loss of their possessions, the invasion of privacy and violation of personal space, but some may experience emotional distress or be left with physical injuries.

Victims of crime may experience long-term adverse effects, from feelings of strong emotions to physical effects including a lack of sleep or falling ill. For some, the trauma can force them to change their ordinary daily routines, out of fear of repeat victimisation.

CrimeStoppers.

Speak up. Stay safe.

If you have witnessed an incident of robbery, theft, or burglary, or have information about a crime, tell Crimestoppers and remain 100% anonymous.

SUPPORT

If you have been a victim of crime, you can contact Victim Support who can give you the emotional support and advice you need. It does not matter how long ago the crime took place – they are always on hand to support you. More information is available here <https://www.victimsupport.org.uk/>

Children and young person support

If you have children and young people in your family or you have friends that do, we are providing information and access to dedicated support services, if they feel they are unable to speak to their relatives or teachers.

Is this OK?

Is This Ok? is a free, anonymous, and confidential service, bringing trained professionals together to provide support to young people through a chat service. You do not need to provide your real name (a nickname is fine for us!), and we don't need to know your address.

The service is available for children and young people aged 13 - 18 years old and you can find out more here <https://www.isthisok.org.uk/>

Fearless - Crimestoppers

It can be a frightening time when children and young people hear of a crime being planned, witness a crime or are being exploited. Fearless enables young people to pass on information about crime 100% anonymously. The Fearless website is available here <https://crimestoppers-uk.org/fearless/what-is-fearless>
