PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Parent or Guardian

Anti-Social Behaviour Warning Stage 1

It has been brought to the attention of the West Midlands Police that your child has been involved in acts of anti-social behaviour which have occurred on [REDACTED]. As a direct result of your actions a number of other persons have suffered or are likely to have suffered harassment, alarm or distress.

The ASB Crime and Policing Act 2014 empowers the Police to take out Civil Injunctions on individual responsible for anti-social behaviour. Such an order is intended to protect local residents from suffering harassment alarm and distress.

Breach of a civil injunction is deemed a 'contempt of court' and may result in a 'supervision order' or a civil detention of up to 3 months.

Should you continue to act in an anti-social manner West Midlands Police shall make an application for a Civil Injunction to be made against them.

This letter may be used in evidence in future legal proceedings.
