Successes during County Lines Intensification Week

Criminals exploiting vulnerable people and dealing drugs in Warwickshire took a hit last week as we took part in national County Lines Intensification Week. Here you can see some of our successes. County lines is a form of criminal exploitation where organised drug gangs from large urban areas traffic drugs into smaller towns.

This is happening in Warwickshire. Organised crime gangs are exploiting some of the most vulnerable people in our county for financial gain.

We're out there every day doing everything we can to disrupt their operation.

You can help by being aware of the signs of people being exploited and reporting concerns to us.

Find out more about county lines, the signs of exploitation and how to report:
