News

Your local Blaby, Whetstone, Cosby, and Glen Parva beat team have been out conducting numerous patrols across Oakfield Park and other nearby parks. This follows recent reports from the community regarding anti-social driving—specifically, vehicles performing "doughnuts" in the car park of Oakfield Park. A number of vehicle registration numbers have already been recorded. CCTV checks are currently underway to identify the drivers involved. Anyone identified driving in this anti-social manner will be issued with a Section 59 warning. What is a Section 59? - A Section 59 warning is a formal notice issued by the police under Section 59 of the Police Reform Act 2002 informing a driver that their vehicle has been used in a manner causing, or likely to cause, alarm, distress, or annoyance to members of the public—such as anti-social driving—and warning that if the same behaviour is repeated within a 12 month period, the police have the power to seize the vehicle. In addition to Oakfield Park, the team has been stepping up foot patrols around our local parks and open spaces in regards to groups of people on e-bikes. As a result, we have issued a number of Anti-Social Behaviour (ASB) warning letters to individuals causing a nuisance in the community. Our parks are spaces for everyone to enjoy safely, and we will not tolerate behaviour that puts the public at risk.

PCSO Vicki 6622 and PCSO Ryan 6028 had a fantastic time attending the PSA organized event at Glen Hills Primary School. The Summer Fun Run was brilliant to watch and incredibly colourful – it was great to see so many smiling faces and such a positive atmosphere! There was plenty going on, with lots of different stalls and games for everyone to enjoy. It was clear that a lot of fun was being had by all who attended! We were also given the very important job of helping to name the shark and the snake, ready for people to guess their names – a serious responsibility which we were more than happy to take on! Thank you to everyone involved for organizing such a wonderful event and for making us feel so welcome.
