Our Ward Priorities:

Cuppa With a Copper

- Violence Priority:
Tackling Robbery/weapon offences around South Norwood High Street

The South Norwood Team (SNT) took part in a highly successful community meeting on the 19th July. We were also pleased to meet with Councillor Stella Nabukeera, whose presence helped reinforce the importance of partnership between the police and the local authority. There was strong face-to-face interaction throughout the day, with many meaningful and positive conversations.

- Drug dealing hotspots:
Tackling drug use and drug dealing on Belgrave
road, South Norwood
Recreational Ground,
Station Road, Norwood
Junction and other locations in South Norwood.

Met Engage visits –

Your local Safer Neighbourhood team officer conducted patrols around South Norwood with local volunteers, informing the public in regards to the new initiative to assist with the report of anti-social behaviour known as MET ENGAGE. The new initiative was well received with over 10 residents signing up to it.

Walkabout with Councillor Stella –

Local Safer Neighbourhood officers conducted paired patrols with local Councillor Stella Nabukeera to local businesses within South Norwood High Street. This was done to give the business the opportunity to voice their concerns in regards to any problems they are facing provide details on prolific offenders who reduce their quality of life

Your SNT officers are:

- PS Humble 496SN
- PC Akamune 1156SN
- PC Halimi 1256SN
- PC Marriott 2935 SN
- PCSO Gohar 7191SN

INTRODUCTION

I am please to introduce and welcome our new team member,

Mr. Paul Marriott,

Who has joined the South Norwood SNT. His addition to the team will further strengthen our efforts in maintaining a wider focus on reducing crime across the ward.

We look forward to working together and continuing to make a positive difference in the community.
