News

A day in the life of a beat officer.

Last night the neighbourhood team paired up with our proactive team to look to arrest persons who had failed to answer their court cases. If you fail to attend court after being charged with an offence, the magistrate or judge can issue a warrant for your arrest. Then the police are tasked with finding you and getting you to the next available sitting. Last night we achieved 3 persons arrested for warrants or prison recalls, 1 arrested for matters we wanted to speak to them about (assault, damage and harassment), and added bonus a person we had circulated was arrested by our Cheshire Police colleagues and our night shift were leaving to bring them back to Leics for the morning CID as we left. #yousaidwedid #inyourcommunity.
