

Report antisocial behaviour so we can do something about it

Report each incident separately, even if it seems minor.

We need to build up a picture from reports of individual incidents so we can take action, even if we can't deal with every one.

Who should I report to?	How do I report it?
Police
Drug dealing Drug taking Rowdy behaviour that might lead to a fight Violent behaviour Hate crime Harassment Aggressive begging Use of e-powered two-wheel vehicles Arson (setting fire to a property) Cuckooing (taking over a vulnerable person's home)	• 999 if any crime is happening now, the suspect is nearby, violence is being used or threatened, or anyone is hurt or in danger • 101 or www.met.police.uk • Include time, date, location, description, vehicle registration number Sign up to Met Engage www.metengage.co.uk/ for news from local police on what they are doing in your area. You can report anonymously to the independent charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111, open 24 hours, or crimestoppers-uk.org/
Council
Drug taking locations Street drinking Vandalism Nuisance vehicles Cuckooing (taking over a vulnerable person's home)	• www.brent.gov.uk/nuisance-crime-and-community-safety/anti-social-behaviour
Loud music Noisy building work Noise from animals, events or alarms	• Call the noise team on: • 0208 937 5252 Monday to Friday 11am to 6pm • 0208 937 1234 (option 3 for emergencies) Friday to Sunday 6pm to 2am • Download thenoiseapp.com/
Smoke from bonfires Smells, dust or glaring light	• www.brent.gov.uk/environment/air-quality/smoke-control-and-bonfires
Fly tipping, flyposting Graffiti	Email waste.enforcement@brent.gov.uk

Antisocial behaviour related to your accommodation

- Council tenants or leaseholders should use MyAccount at www.brent.gov.uk/brent-accounts-launch-page or call 0208 937 2400.
- Housing association tenants should contact the housing association or housing officer.
- Private tenants should contact their landlord.