During October, officers also made a number of Arrests including arrests in connection with class A drugs, burglary, common assault and breaching of the court orders. Officers continue to conduct high-visibility and Reassurance patrols across identified hotspots area to deter offending and address concerns raised by local Residents. Our local SNT issued numerous ASB warnings In response to incidents of anti-social behavior, where appropriate.

You said: Providing reassurance patrols at TREBY STEET, E3
We did: Mile End SNT officers were providing reassurance patrols at the address and carrying safety checks inside the building as the response to local community members concerned about incidents of trespassing into the building and causing such ASB issues such as defecating outside the entrance of the building.

Police Officers were conducting Halloween and Fireworks safety patrols across Mile End Ward to help keeping our neighborhood safe during that particular time and were securing local Remembrance Day proceedings to make sure our community members attending the ceremony at Tower Hamlets Cemetery.

Mile End SNT Officers made a stop of a prolific offender known for theft and burglary at East India Dock Road, detained the male suspect in possession of sharp and dangerous weapon after a chase at Baythorne Street and also detained individuals involved in supplying class B drugs at Canton Street and Tower Hamlets Cemetery Park. All SNT Officers actions led to successful arrests across our ward.
