Burglary success - We've been working hard to reduce burglaries and lock up more offenders.

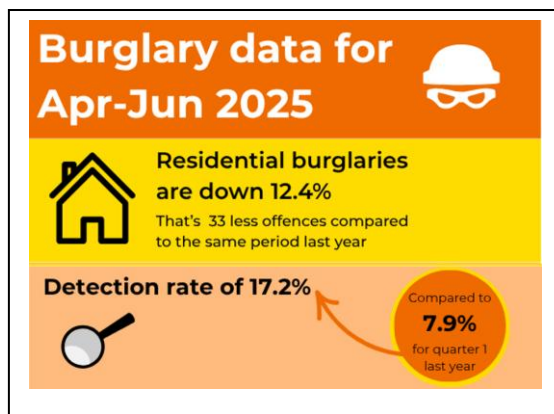

Our burglary lead, Detective Chief Inspector Rich Brown, said: "We've worked hard to improve every single part of our response to home burglaries; from the initial attendance to the investigation process.

"Our local neighbourhood teams have also been doing a great job going out to visit victims and working with the crime prevention team to improve security at new-build sites.

"Ultimately, this approach has seen a lot more offenders being locked up. More offenders off the streets means less burglaries."

You can help us to further reduce burglaries by taking some simple steps to protect your home -
