Officers hope for a 'silent night' this Christmas

As Christmas party season reaches its peak, we are asking those out celebrating to make sure the only 'jingle bells' you hear this December belong to Santa's sleigh—not the sirens of a police car.

“All I want for Christmas, is you' to make sure you get to and from your celebrations safely and legally” said Inspector Wayne Boulton who is leading our December operation to remove drink and drug drivers from the roads.

'Last Christmas', we arrested 74 people for drink or drug driving related offences.

We want people to enjoy their Christmas parties, but the statistics are sobering. Every year, more than 1,800 people are killed or seriously injured on UK roads because of drink or drug driving (STATS19 data). Beyond the devastating human cost, offenders often crash into parked cars, leaving innocent owners with repair bills that can run into thousands of pounds.

Inspector Boulton continues “We know that drinking or taking drugs and driving increases your risk of a collision, and we do not want the lives of innocent people, and their families shattered, especially not at Christmas.”

That's why we are encouraging the public and CCTV operators to report the details of suspected drink and drug drivers to us by calling 101 or in an emergency 999. if you prefer to stay 100% anonymous, you can also call Crimestoppers UK on 0800 555 111 or fill in their online form.

We know addiction plays a part and we will also be referring those who need help and support to drug and alcohol services in Warwickshire. Anyone struggling with addiction, can also self-refer.

Keeping you safe is our priority in the run up to Christmas and we will also have extra patrols in town centres on busy nights and at festive events. Please speak to an officer if you have concerns or see anything suspicious.

Burglary prevention advice

Burglary is where items are taken without permission from inside a property, business or outbuilding.

Many burglaries are committed by opportunist thieves. While you may think your home, vehicle and property are secure, it is good to get into a routine. The below advice should help you to protect your property:

- Fit a good quality house alarm and explore the advantages of remote access CCTV.
- Fit good quality locks to doors and windows – and use them, keep windows and doors secure when you are elsewhere in the house. Fit a door chain and screen callers at the door carefully.
- Fit suitable security lighting and leave a light on a timer at home – especially when the clocks go back.
- Property mark your valuables, keep a record and photos – agree an insurance value and consider a floor safe.
- Protect access to the back of your property especially your garage.

Leaving the house or going away?

Your home can be more vulnerable when you are away on holiday or when your house is unoccupied for long periods of time.

- Use timer switches – available from most DIY shops to turn on lights, radios and other appliances when you're out.
- Where possible keep all valuable items stored safely and away from view.
- Get a friend, relative or neighbour to look after your home when you're away by collecting your post, opening and drawing your curtains and generally making the place look lived in. Be prepared to do the same for them.
- Ensure they have a key if you want them to enter your property. Never leave a spare in a hiding place such as under the doormat or in a flower pot.
- Cancel all deliveries to your home while you are away. Lock up properly before you leave and when you return home check everything is as you left it.
- Always remember if you are going away on holiday, out to work, or simply shopping, try not to make it obvious you are not in. Most burglars will only enter a property if they believe no-one is home.

Further advice can be found on the crime prevention section of the Warwickshire Police website:
