Wellesbourne SNT Area Incidents in July 2024

What else did we do last month?

In addition to the incidents described in this newsletter, in July, the SNT, Warwickshire Police operational units and our call handlers dealt with a total of 264 incidents across our local beat as shown in this chart.

Concern:

This is where the caller is reporting a concern over another person, eg a vulnerable adult or child or someone missing.

Road Related:

This includes break downs where the vehicle is a danger to other road users or pedestrians, reports of dangerous driving, failure to stop when requested by police, persons suspected of driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs, as well as reports of animals on the road such as loose riderless horses or sheep.

Police action:

For example, liaison with neighbouring police forces and bail supervision.

Other:

This includes other incidents under various categories, for example last month there were reports of anti social behaviour, hate crime, sexual offences, malicious communications and sextortion, drug offences, illness and injury, damage to property, theft, violence, mental health issues, reports of driving incidents, disputes with neighbours and trespass.

Please note that this data has been compiled for your interest and is not intended to be quoted as data, as the numbers have not been officially audited. Some of the specific police categories have been simplified under broader headings, (such as Road), for ease of reading.
