Taking Positive Action with our Beat Priority

We have had so many complaints from residents in and around Gilmorton Avenue and Great Central Way of reports of motorbikes riding around grass area and up and down great central way and on the road causing alarm harassment and distress. We have taken positive action and seized a quality of motorbikes using are Sec 59 Powers. Photo attached motorbikes being seized.

You said we Did Tackling Parking issues

Over that past months we have increased calls from local residents around Aylestone of parking complaints. The most common complaint is being blocked in and cant get out drive way. This is an offence and we have powers to recover the vehicle if its blocking your access to leave address or business. Photo attached of vehicle being recovered of a vehicle blocking a local bussines. Please think before you park as it costs the owner around £150 to get it back.
