

STALKING

Did you know?

In Derbyshire
there were over 3,100 recorded
stalking offences
in 2024.

Derbyshire
Police and Crime
Commissioner

Safer and Stronger Together

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Derbyshire
Police and Crime
Commissioner
Safer and Stronger Together

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Did you know?

In Derbyshire 85% of perpetrators are personally connected to the victim.

Derbyshire
Police and Crime
Commissioner
Safer and Stronger Together

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Did you know?

Stalking is classed as
fixated, obsessive,
unwanted and
repeated contact.

Did you know?

It doesn't have to
be threatening or abusive.

Derbyshire
Police and Crime
Commissioner
Safer and Stronger Together

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Did you know?

Using someone's identity or personal details to find out information can be a form of stalking.

Derbyshire
Police and Crime
Commissioner
Safer and Stronger Together

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Derbyshire
Police and Crime
Commissioner
Safer and Stronger Together

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Did you know?

Nationally 76% of stalking happens online.

Did you know?

In Derbyshire
23% of stalking
victims are men.

Derbyshire
Police and Crime
Commissioner

Safer and Stronger Together

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Derbyshire
Police and Crime
Commissioner
Safer and Stronger Together

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Did you know?

If you're changing
your routine to avoid someone
else's behaviour,
you may be a
victim of stalking.

Did you know?

Last year in England and Wales 1 in 5 women and 1 in 11 men said they had previously been stalked.

Derbyshire
Police and Crime
Commissioner
Safer and Stronger Together

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Need help?

- Call 999 if you or someone else is in danger.
- In a non-emergency contact Derbyshire police on 101, on www.derbyshire.police.uk or through their social media.
- Call the National Stalking Helpline on 0808 802 0300.
- Speak to a trusted friend, family member or colleague.

Derbyshire
Police and Crime
Commissioner
Safer and Stronger Together

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Support for victims of crime

Giving people access to the different types of help they may need from just one place.

For victim help and support:

- Visit DerbyshireVictimServices.co.uk
- Call 0800 612 6505
- Text 'DVS' TO 82228

Protecting Communities
Fighting Crime

Derbyshire
Victim Services

