Children aged 8 and over welcome with a responsible parent / grandparent.

I have teamed up with Emma's Humbugs to offer new dates throughout the school holidays for 3 hour sessions on Friday afternoons. I aim to give anyone attending the workshop the confidence and techniques to explore their creative side, guiding them through some of the materials available and simplifying some of the technical jargon that can be daunting.

Anyone taking part will only need to let Emma or her team know which date is convenient and leave name(s) and a contact phone number or email address

I very much enjoyed it I was hesitant to start the figures but with your guidance I got there I did learn quite a few things. Marie B

Thank you for a lovely workshop, I found the whole experience really great. Quite proud of my final piece..... I appreciated the support you offered..... I'll definitely be at a future workshop. Tracy C

Do you know someone who would like to while away a few hours with a paintbrush and a range of quality acrylic paints but didn't have; a) materials to hand; b) confidence to try; c) space to set up the equipment; d) time to relax or; e) all of the above?
