

CONTACTING CAMBRIDGESHIRE POLICE

Scenario:	Emergency	Non-emergency
You see someone with a crowbar attempting to break into your next door neighbour's house . The crime is in progress so it's an emergency.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
You come home from school and notice that someone has damaged and vandalised your local park. No one is in danger and the crime isn't happening now so it's not an emergency.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
You realise that your phone has been stolen out of your bag while you weren't looking. No one is in danger and the crime isn't happening now so it's not an emergency.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
You see two people fighting with weapons on a busy highstreet. The crime is in progress and could lead to serious violence - call 999.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
You drive past a car crash which has just happened. No one is hurt but the cars are stopped on a dangerous bend on a busy road. The position of the cars could lead to a large disruption or further crashes - call 999.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
You notice a bank transaction from two weeks ago that you don't recognise and think you've been the victim of fraud. Because the crime isn't in progress it's not an emergency. Report it as a non-urgent crime and the police / banks will help you to get your money back.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>