Unfortunately, the community suffered a horrible act of malicious vandalism when the new climbing frame in Queen's Park was destroyed in a deliberate act of arson.

Whilst the community has rallied round wonderfully, regrettably we are still chasing the council parks department for CCTV footage. That may shed light on the identity of those responsible.

The drug dealing / use on the ward had dropped off in the last days of winter will now begin to rise along with ASB (anti-social behaviour) as the hot weather arrives.

To try and tackle this we will be attempting to up the frequency of the foot patrols through the ward.

Also, Craven Vaile recently featured in the Argus newspaper where residents aired their feelings of feeling abandoned.

The article was mainly aimed at the council but even so we are committed to making sure all those who live on the Queen's Park Ward feel seen and protected.

Below is a ward map showing all burglaries (red) and drugs offences (blue) across the ward over the past month.
